To our Sponsors who have inspired us as a class to undertake many of our activities, we respectfully dedicate this Twenty-Sixth issue of Savannah High School Bluejacket.

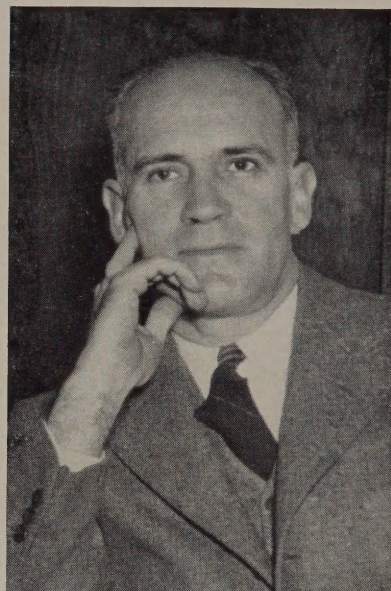

Incidentally, Mr. Swayne, who instituted the Bluejacket as a memento for graduates in 1920, has reached the age where retirement from High School is compulsory. He has had sole supervision of all of the yearly editions including this 26th Number, and we regret that he will not be here next year to aid the editorial staff with his valuable advice and assistance.

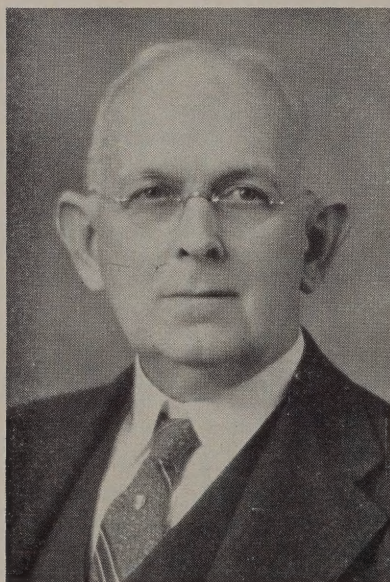

Bonnie Bordeaux,
Editor in Chief.

January 1945 Class Prophecy

We had just twenty minutes to make our bus—the cab came racing up (this modern helicopter type, you know), and who should jump out to collect our bags but that hefty GEORGIA ANTON (Antonopolis to us). After whisking our baggage into the car and helping us in, she clambered into the front seat and punched a button labeled RAYMOND GRAHAM'S Bus Station, and off we went!

We began to think of how time has passed—here it is January 25, 1955—just ten years since that glorious day we graduated from dear old Savannah High School.

We arrived at the bus station and HERSCHEL McCALLAR came dashing out in his zoot suit and red cap and took our baggage into the checkroom, where BILL TARVER was snoozing at the desk. After checking our bags we bought a copy of RAMON ROSENZWEIG'S "Monsieur, the Magazine for Smart Young Men," from ANN RUSSELL at the newsstand. We heard a loud call "All aboard!" from TOMMY LeHARDY, and we ran out to board the bus; and who should be the driver but that shy little RUTH SULLIVAN!

We took our seats and began to look through the magazine. On the cover was that "Man of the Hour," that heartbreaker, TOM CRAMER! Inside an editor's note stated that Tom had just been voted "Pin-Up Boy" for the United Auxiliary of Women Welders. The first few pages featured men's fashions for the coming summer. AUSTIN HINELY was modeling a suave little number created by BILLY CASTON. TOMMY BECKMAN, BILLY WINN, FRED RAHN and WINWOOD BOYKIN were showing some stunning bathing suits designed by JOE BRAVO.

Turning the page we glanced over a preview of the current Broadway hit, "The Voice of Myrtle," starring that captivating pair HAROLD HECKER and DORIS GLENN in another of their thrilling performances.

Just at that minute the bus came to a standstill. We peered out to see what was the matter and there we spied LUCIOUS COBB, peacefully leading his cows across the road to the meadow. After this interruption, we continued our journey.

Pangs of hunger began gnawing within us, so we inquired of our noble driver when we would stop for food. We soon arrived at "Bacon and Fryer's"—GENE and JOYCE were busy dishing out "Fryer-burgers" and were very surprised to see two old pals. Just then we were interrupted by the wait into the oven we saw PATTY COOK and SHIRLEY PECK intensely searching for the cake they'd put in ten hours ago—it wasn't there for some reason!

We heard the busy driver blow her tin whistle, so we picked up our things and made for the bus. We noticed that two new passengers had taken our seats—we soon saw that they were JAMES WILLIAMS and MARIE RIMES eloping to California. After congratulations we journeyed to the rear of the bus and sat on two suit cases belonging to ANN HOPKINS and WALTER WORRELL, who were going to the Democratic Convention in Washington to nominate SAM CANN for president. After gaily chatting with them of old times, we dropped off to sleep. The next thing we knew we were slung off our suitcases by an abrupt stop to find ourselves deep in the heart of Texas. We painfully dragged ourselves to our feet and stumbled out of the bus and saw that famous cowgirl from the wild and woolly west, JOAN WINKERS, rounding up her wolves. She was assisted by JOYCE BLACKBURN, LUCILLE JONES, BERTIE JO VANDIVERE and MILDRED SULLIVAN. She yelled "Wahoo!" at us and rode wildly on her way. (My how things had changed to think our dignified president! Oh, well!) We stared about us—amazed! There was a beautiful cactus farm right ahead of us. We saw a very familiar-looking figure, so we walked over curiously and discovered GEORGE OELSCHIG picking the needles out of his bare feet. He was too engrossed to notice us, so we drifted back to the bus, stopping now and then to chat with former alumni—BILL FARRIOR, the innkeeper, and COOLIDGE THIGPEN, the celebrated animal trainer.

The bus that we were to transfer to had arrived and we were delighted to see another old grad driving, HELENE UNGAR. We rolled along for days until we reached the Golden Gate. Waving merrily to ARNOLD GOLDBERG and ROBERT MOORE, who were guarding the gate, we rode breathlessly into San Francisco, where we spent the evening sight-seeing. We were up early the next morning, and soon on our way to Hollywood; we could hardly wait to see the premiere of BILL CRANE'S production, "Take It—Don't Leave It," adapted from the novel, "Pauper's Row," by JAMIE PATRICK. The show started at eight o'clock, but we arrived early to nose around among the audience. The orchestra began playing while we were still roaming around seeing our old acquaintances, COSTA ALFRIERIS, the doorman, and SHIRLEY ATKINSON, MARY COLEBROOK, GRACE CLARK, and BETTE CHERNOFF, the usherettes. We took our seats to listen to that captivating song of memories "Begin the Beguine," conducted by ROBERT GROOVER. Among the musicians we noticed BILLY NICHOLSON, JAMES LOWE, EDWARD THOMAS and DEWEY DeLETTRE.

We looked around us, awed by the number of celebrities, such entertainers as ELECTRA DEMOSTHENES, the Greek actress, PEGGY MOORE, the blues singer, BETTY VON RUNNEN, now ballerina at the American Ballet, JACK NEIDLINGER, the foreign correspondent, and MARJORIE TUTEN, the linguist. In the boxes surrounding us we saw ASHLEY JONES, the Prima Donna at the Metropolitan, LILLIAN GRACEN and CAROL HALL, the pianists with their escorts, PALMER AINSLEY, EDWARD BOYD and EDWARD WOOD.

Just then the music was interrupted by an emergency call—"Calling Dr. Parish, calling Dr. Parish," but Shirley didn't even hear it; her mind wandered back to a certain cactus farm in Texas.

The play was about to begin. We settled down and the curtain went up. The play was magnificent. We both admitted that the actors FREDERIC DOYLE, JANE WILLIAMS and MARTHA WARD had given sterling performances.

January Class Prophecy

After the show we went to the "Magnolia Club," where our host, BILLY WHIPKEY, took us to a table and had the head-waitress, ROSEMARY HOPKINS, bring a meal prepared by his private chef, BILLY TAYLOR.

The evening was very exciting, but we soon had to leave to pick up our bags at the hotel and catch our plane for home. The cute little hostess, NINA DORRIS ARNOLD, came through to see that we were comfortable. We assured her that we were, and began to talk to two other pals, ANN McGILLICUDDY and JANE SOLOMONS, who were returning home from their screen tests. We saw that EVELYN WILLS and ROSE ROFFMAN were asleep across the aisle from us. They said they were dropping off by parachute to visit LILLIAN SHELTON and MARY JULIA ELLENWOOD in their cabin in the Tennessee mountains. (Or so they drowsily said when we rudely awakened them to inquire their destinations.)

Feeling a bit sleepy ourselves, we dropped off to dreamland, awakening only when we landed at the airfield in dear old Savannah.

We were met in a jeep by our fellow members of the "Helicopter Club for Aviators," MARION BLAIR, SUE HILL, NORA NORMAN, MARY FRANCES STOKES, GLORIA WIMBERLY, JUANITA CLARK, and LOUISE GEORGE, who were anxious to hear of our adventures.

Bumping merrily off in our jeep, we began our tale of adventure, one which we shall never forget!

June 1945 Class Prophecy

New York, 1955.

We, the two of us, being the best agents of the great JOE GOOGE Detective Agency were assigned to the task of the capture and arrest of two of the country's most desperate criminals, "Slim Jim" and "Joe, the Killer." They were last reported to be in or near Savannah, Georgia, our old home town.

We made a quick trip to Savannah and after we had checked in at the latest HULBERT FISCHER Hotel, we started making the rounds of the places we thought these desperate criminals would frequent. We hired one of LAKE PROCTER'S "Hope It Won't Rain" Taxie Cabs and began our tour.

Wanting to make a good start we headed for the Grand Opening of DeLAMAR TURNER'S Night Club lovingly called "Del's Dirty Dive" or "Del's" for short. What a place! It was almost an S.H.S. June '45 Class reunion! The charming hat-check girl was our own GLORIA MALLARD. Still as happy as always. The head-waiter, CHARLES MARTIN, couldn't believe that we were two of his old classmates, so we decided not to argue, but just to get a ring-side table for the floor show. The management had to be mean about it though, and kept everyone breathlessly waiting for sometime. But it was worth the wait just to see that lovely chorus of girls lead by talented MIRIAM BAILEY. The other little "de'licers" were JEWEL HOFFMAN, JEAN DORMANDY, and those ever popular twins, JEAN and JOAN JARRIEL. After their act the whole crew joined us and we talked over the past ten years. The Jarriels told us that their agent was that "Crafty Crook," BARON HAAG, who had quite a syndicate. That was easily understood when we learned that some of his henchmen were ALVIN HITT, HUGO BRIDGER, and one of the prides of S.H.S., CHARLIE CLANTON. The girls left to get ready for their next number. The lights were turned low and the orchestra leader gracefully lifted his baton for the next song. Gee, were they snazzy! The reason for their success must have been because JACK MALLARD was their leader. We also think that JIMMIE TOOTLE'S tooting helped a lot. And definitely an addition to the band was that great, handsome, "personality kid" at the drums, EDWARD SIEG. YVONNE CORDRAY was running from table to table snapping cute pictures for $5.00 each. The set-up was complete with "MIKE" ROBERTSON as the M.C. and P. J. THOMAS as bouncer. We finally had to literally tear ourselves away and head for home, but just as we got to the door we met that "boresome foursome," JESSIE (LOVER) PARRISH, REGINALD (GOON) FERGUSON, CHARLES (SPARKS) SPARKMAN, and BILL COLLEY. Naturally we had to go back and have a quick one for old time's sake. We almost fell over the bar when we saw CARLTON KIMBERLY and FRANK COLEMAN mixing drinks!

Early the next morning we left "Del's" feeling very happy to have seen so many old classmates and anticipating seeing many more. Our hopes were fulfilled. GEORGE JARROT, the new "Dictator" of S.H.S. heard we were in town and insisted on our coming to speak at an assembly the following day. We thought he might be able to give us a lead on our two desperate and vicious criminals, so we accepted. It was wonderful to see an efficient office staff "owned and operated" by GLORIA BURNSED with MARGURITE WILLIAMS who was still calling students' parents to find out why their brat wasn't in school. SHIRLEY ANN WINTER was typing the absentee report and MYRA BOLIN was filing schedule cards.

The new "warden" was eager to show us his lovely "school for correction" and he started with the ground floor. We interrupted class 106 and found HARVEY GRANGER helping to complete a "Book Drive" for the June '55 Class. He was ably assisted by CHARLES WILLIAMSON and HOWARD HALL. They all loved the dear old school so much that they couldn't bear to leave it. We left this "gleesome threesome" to proceed to the gym class. The supervisor was DORIS KODDEN who was showing her new staff how to do push-ups without lagging in the middle. We recognized two of these ladies to be VALERIA BARNES and BEVERLY BEECHAM. After lunch we made our talk to the mob at assembly and renewed old acquaintances with RUBIE LEE MEEKS, teaching English 2 and LOIS MALLORY fighting Latin. We were just dying to see the Military Staff and Personnel and etc. The etc. was wonderful. We could tell that it was the best R.O.T.C. in many years. It should have been, for instance, BAXTER McCRERRY as instructor of the band; HARVEY MORGAN as P.M.S. and and T., and BALDWIN BRIDGER yelling at first-year cadets to hold their heads up and keep their eyes off the ground. The final blow was to see STELLGES NICHOLS running around yelling about turning the heat on, Stellges being the new "janitor." We had quite a full share of "Jarrot's Joint for Juveniles," so we left to continue our search for these two, now, very desperate criminals.

Hoping that this pair might be music lovers we acquired tickets to the concert of that eminent violinist, MELVIN (BLITZ) BERLIN. He was accompanied at the piano by his partner, GEORGE (ROCKY) UPCHURCH. The lovely usherettes were more of our classmates, KATHERIN ROACH and BOBBY JANE CORDRAY. SUSAN STRONG and LESLIE SNEAD were climbing over people in the Dress Circle and MARIE and BLANCHE LEUNIG were down in the orchestra. Our concert night was not successful. We still had no trace of our very desperate criminals.

The next night we wanted to see more of our classmates who were still in Savannah, so we drove out to our old hangout, the Triple XXX. The name was changed to "The Suds and Pretzels" and was owned by BETTY RUSHING and DOTTY GRIFFIN. It was surprising to see BETTY FORMAN rush to our car and take our order and give it to PAT FITZMAURICE to fix. Like it was ten years ago, there was a gang making the rounds of the cars. Some of them were GORDON DASHER, EVANS McDANIEL, JIMMIE MASTERS, and DAN O'CONNER. We fooled them though, and locked the doors so they left. After awhile we left, too, and went home planning to go to Tybee the next day. We felt certain our criminals would be there because a beauty contest was going to be held.

Tybee was still the same dump, but it was packed with many people that we knew. We saw JOYCE SEE and MILLCENT GOLDBERG playing handball on the beach with PAUL STRICKLAND and FRED ROSENSTEIN. They couldn't tell us anything about our criminals so we went up to the Pavilion and found some of the old crowd. ROSALIE GRESSER and ANNETTE HORNE told us that NEWELL TURNER and "LIZ" de GARIS were in Chicago studying art together and BETTY BUNTYN, the celebrated authoress had just completed another smash hit entitled, "A Cactus Grows In Texas." At that moment that "gruesome twosome," WALLACE RICHARDS and RAY REHM staggered up and happened to mention the fact that MARTHA REEVES and AUDREY

HASKINS had been seen on a date with two familiar looking men last night. We held our breath, could these two be our desperate men? Were we closing in on them? We hoped we could find them at the beauty contest the next day.

About noon we went to the beach to look the situation over and found ALFRED DISMUKES and LORRAINE CROVATT, the newlyweds, strolling down the beach. ALVIN GALIN and BILLY BUTLER were yapping about hot-dogs, ten cents with or without a roll. GEORGE BRANNEN was picking his way through the crowd, and SHELLY ABBOTT and ROGER COOPER were putting up the judges' stand. Incidentally, the Official Judges for the affair were past acquaintances of ours, ROBERT CUBBEDGE, HELEN CHAPLAIN, CHARLES CARTER, and HOWARD WOO. There was an appeal for order and less noise, and the show began. It was hard deciding on which girl was to be "Miss Tybee Island" of 1955. ELEANOR COOPER won in 1950 and LOIS CORDES in 1951. However, SUE COX had held the title for two years, but BETTY DUPUY had taken it in 1953, and in 1954 it was CAROLYN WOOD. Now in 1955 it was a hard decision to make, and no wonder when JOYCE LECHE, DIXIE MARKS, JEANETTE GLEATON, and JOANNE DURENCE were all competing for the title. The girls paraded back and forth before the crowd and the voters were still trying to decide. WALTER KESSEL was desperately deciding and IRVIN KONTER and JAMES LOVETT were just standing in the crowd sighting. The votes were cast and the Judges retired to count them. The Queen was to be announced at a party that night to be held at the "Copper Rail" and sponsored by the GEORGE MOREL, SIDNEY NUTTING, CHARLES PERRY, and EDDIE GINN Shoe String Company. Before the grand announcement the crowd was entertained by CHARLES HUGHES' Dancing School and SHIRLEY KEMPER and LOUISE TAYLOR rendered a lovely duet of that popular new song, "Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday are the Lonliest Nights of the Week." ANN WILLIAMS made a success out of the flower business.

At twelve o'clock the Chief Judge announced that "Miss Tybee Island" of 1955 was none other than ANNE ZIPPLIES, who represented MARJORIE GREEN'S "Shop for Debutantes." We enjoyed the party so much that we momentarily forgot our two desperately wild criminals.

The following day, the morning paper, edited by CAROLYN MITCHEL, stated that the "Last National Bank" had opened a new branch on JAMES WOOD Avenue and that WILLIAM WORRELL was to be its new President. ROBIN WELLS and ANNE WEBB were tellers and ANNE WOODWARD was to be the President's Secretary. The thought for the day in the paper was, "Turn on the Green Light, Hoiman, the Man Wants a Green Suit," and was written and composed by that brilliant poet, FREDDIE RUTUREAU. An ad concerning DONALD SHEFFELD'S Wine was mentioning the fact that his product had just received the Seal of Approval of BILLY MAL-LARD, that brilliant connoisseur of wines.

We planned to go to the Speed-boat Races in the afternoon because that dashing, debonair, daredevil, MARION JOHNSON was included in the list of contestants. His boat was the very latest of models put out by WILEY KESSLER and WILBERT LITTLE. There were two or three young ladies also participating in the race, SARA LEON, PAULA LEECH, and RUTH TODD. We thought surely that our crooks would be milling about in the crowd. The "take" would be donated to the JOHN STEWART and CORRY SMITH "Pinball Enterprise" which was losing money since RICHARD GRAVES had been acclaimed as Pinball Champ. In case of accident the CHARLES GRIFFIN "Safety Squad" consisting of ARNOLD CONWAY, MURRAY ARKIN, and JAMES GRINER was ready and waiting for action. It was a very thrilling race except on the half-way mark. One of the racers stopped to talk to BETTY ANN FREEMAN and SYDNEY ELLIS who were watching from a bouy. This disqualified that boat and another contestant turned over because he kept staring at KITTY GARIS on one of the docks. It was such a close race that no one was declared winner.

We left the races and drove into town with MARY ALICE MEEKS and EUNICE OGLETREE who told us to be sure and eat dinner at LILA MAE ROBERT'S Automat. We took their advice and went there and found THEDA SWARTZ and SELMA SAL-KIN being apprehended by the law for using slugs. We did enjoy our dinner, however, even though we still had no trace of our criminals.

We started down Broughton Street which had added many new changes. STERLING YOUNG has a new theatre with JOAN RABHAN as chief projector operator. On Monday, Wednesday, and Friday nights lectures are given by LOUIS LEOPOLD, that great Greek Philosopher. A cake raffle is held on Tuesday nights and the prize is donated by the INGRID LIPPMAN and EDNA MARSHALL Ladies' Aide Society. Two of the charter members are NAOMI LeBEY and MARGARET MITCHELL (not to be confused with Gone With the Wind).

Across from the theatre is MARY ELLEN'S MONTGOMERY'S Business School which has several star pupils—NANCY NELSON, DOROTHY PALMER, and JOAN PINCKNEY. Nancy is now employed in MANNER PATTERSON'S "Protective League" and Dot and Joan have positions with CLARICE PAUL'S Insurance Agency.

We heard that BETTY PITTS had a thriving Hat Shoppe so we went to see her and found the report to be true. Betty told us, however, that DORIS PAXTON and ROSE NEASE were giving her competition because they were selling hats for $3.95, instead of the usual $3.98. That being too much, we left.

Arriving at Bull and Broughton Streets we found that where McCrory's Five and Ten Cents Store once stood was now DOTT WITT MILIKEN'S Funeral Home. We went in to see Dott Witt and found LORRAINE LAMBKIN in tears over the death of her seventh husband. Lorraine was very brave and was being comforted by DOT HAAS and PAULINE LEIGH who were very understanding. We talked with Dott Witt for a while, but were so depressed that we had to leave.

We went out to buy a copy of MARION LEE'S latest True Story to restore our morale. We found a copy in MARION MANSON'S Drug Store and took it home to read.

That night we stayed at the hotel and listened to the radio. We enjoyed hearing MAMYE JO PARKER in that thrilling serial, "I Was Just a Victim of Circumstance." This heart-warming program was followed by a gripping episode in the "Life of Charsvoski Romananaski Kunianski," or "Just Plain Bill," starring those great actresses of television, LELIA ANN NEASE and BETTY WISE. "Bill" was portrayed by JOHNNIE WINSKIE. At that point the announcer interrupted the program to read the latest flash. Two burglars had broken into one of the city's most prominent citizen's home, Savannah's own GLADYS DOWDY.

Fearing that Gladys was harmed in some way and hoping that the burglars were our two hunted criminals we rushed out to the scene of the robbery and found the Police Chief's Secretary, LEITA HUTCH-ENSON, who explained that the Chief couldn't leave a hot poker session. Gladys described the crooks to be tall, slender, and rather awkward. It fit the description of our two law evaders perfectly, so we felt that it wouldn't be long before they would be brought to justice.

Since we were out we decided to visit JEAN WEATHERS who lived around the corner. She knew nothing that would help us out, but she did tell us that SUSAN VAUGHNDORF and MARY SMYTHE had just returned from Reno, and that MARY TAYLOR'S swell disposition didn't go with her red hair so she had dyed it black. Jean also contributed the information that LOUISE HOPKINS was painting a portrait of BETTY WALKER and MARGARET JAUDON was the new directress of the Telfair Art Academy. Fearing that she wouldn't have any news to tell to PATSY KENLINE, MIRIAM HARLEY, and BETTY HAMILTON at their weekly bridge session, we left her and returned to our hotel to make the final plans for the "perfect capture and arrest" of the country's desperate maniacs, "Slim Jim" and "Joe, the Killer." We only had a few more places of interest left to visit and we felt sure that we'd find them within forty-eight hours.

We had been asked to BONNIE BORDEAUX'S house the following day for cheese and crackers and arrived there all in one piece after a hectic ride out to her house with MARION ALLRED who was just learning to drive. BETTY ANN BRIGHTON who was running for the Vice-Presidency of the United States, was still looking fine but was quite out of breath from running. JANE BROWN was still glowing over her senior year at S. H. S., and SALLY BAXLEY, the famous fashion designer, seemed glad to see us.

We stayed all afternoon and that night we went to see a girl's basket-ball game at the S. H. S. gym. The two teams were ready to kill each other or die trying. The favorite team, "Five Frolicking Females," with their Capt. PEG MULLING, and such players as MARGARET CHAVERS, HELEN FOARD, PAULINE DIXON and EDNA ANN HUTCHINS, was in fine shape and anticipating an easy victory. But to us, the other team sponsored by ELIZABETH BREWER'S "Foamy Brew" looked like good players, also. Their Capt. was BARBARA COWAN, who was having trouble staying on the team because of her failing marks in college. The other players were MARY ELAINE COLSON, BARBARA ANN ALLEN, and NELLWYN BLACKBURN. By the end of the first half, both teams were pooped, and JEAN ARP was trying to revive one of the "Brew" players. ANN BEEBE and NATALIE HAYMES were hanging over the balcony shouting at the players. Near the end of the game substitutes FAYE HANCOCK and GLORIA FUTCH had to be rushed in, but it was no use, the score stood 0-0.

Nearing the end of our adventure we journeyed out to the Oglethorpe Hotel which was owned by VALERIA McIVER with ALEX MacDONELL as her lawyer. We walked to the swimming pool and found ALBERTA SMITH and ADELE SMITH, no relation, sunning themselves by the new pool designed by FLEETA FUSSELL. HARRIET BIRNHAM and GRACE CAPETANAKES were trying to teach SHIRLEY GUNN to dive while TOMMIE DAVIS modeled a new bathing suit designed by LAURA CLIFTON, now a famous dress designer. JOE BRAVO, life-guard, was desperately trying to rescue EULIE REED from VIRGINIA SCOTT, who was giving her artificial respiration. WALTER WORRELL was seen talking with BATTEY NICHOLSON, that famous war correspondent of World War II.

We strolled down to the dock and saw a new DONALD DAVIS speed-boat named "Flash" to suit the designer's personality. On board were SAM CANN, the millionaire playboy, and DICK DICKERSON with his latest flame, LYNN BARKER.

Rowing tirelessly up the river was that famous naval hero FRANK PEEPLES, desperately trying to convince IRENE BRANCH that he acquired his medals honestly.

We walked back up to the pool and BEVERLY FLANDERS offered us a ride to town so we accepted. She told us that ARCHIE MYERS had heard from reliable sources that JESSE MAE NIVER had seen BESSIE SAULS who told her that she and MARIE STEVENS had talked to MAY ANN SMITH and she had told them that the crooks, now frantic, were going to be up at the one-time "Toodle Inn," now changed to "Awcommon Inn," that very night! At last, our chance to capture these criminals!!

We, still the two of us, wanted to get a date, so in case there would be any trouble taking "Slim Jim" and "Joe, the Killer," our dates could protect us. We didn't hesitate one minute, but went straight to CELESTE CURLIN'S Date Bureau where we found Celeste still as cute as always. She had quite a booming business and her office was crowded. MARGARET MARY BYERS told us that she was looking for her dream man and proceeded to describe him, but we had to leave because we kept signing too much! PEGGY ROSS and ANN REED were busy talking in the corner and didn't seem to care whether they got dates or not. Finally we got to see Celeste and as we entered her office we found BETTY LEE FOREMAN and MARIAN COOK telling her how much they liked their dates the previous week.

We explained our situation and Celeste assured us that we'd be quite happy with STEVE STEPHENS and EDWIN ECKLES. If they were anything like their high school days we decided that we'd definitely be pleased.

By nine o'clock that night we were excited about our dates, but were really excited because it was time for the show-down. Steve and Edwin came for us and we went to "Awcommon Inn" for the "kill." We had guards surrounding the building and they were armed to the teeth. Every exit was being watched and all was in readiness for these two maniacs who were like wild beast at bay! They had to be there sometime that night.

We walked up to the bar and found BILL CLEMENT and WILLIAM LaROACHE discussing the Prehistoric Character of Prehistoric Cavemen and CHARLES CARTER and MARION HOWELL taking a drink in order to choke such a subject down.

Time was getting short and we were trying to keep calm in the face of such great danger. "Slim Jim" and "Joe, the Killer" would arrive any minute now and we had to be ready.

Then, like a shot out of the dark, they appeared, these two ruthless, savage criminals, one wanted for Bigamy and the other heartless creature for desertion! There they stood at the door, calm, cool, and collected, collars pulled up, shoulders stooped, hands in their pockets, those lady killers, our own classmates, WARING BRAGG and WILLIAM BINNS!

How could they have done such a thing! How could we arrest our old school chums of "yesteryears?" We had to arrest them and we did, but when those poor defenseless boys told us they had been hounded to death by females so long that they had to leave home, well, they nearly broke our hearts and we had no other choice but to wire Chief Googe of the Great Joe Googe Detective Agency this message:

"Binns is Beauty,
Bragg is Brawn,
They captured our hearts—
So the chase goes on!!"

Signed:

BETTY STEWART.
BETTY STANLY.
